Reddam House/NCUK Partnership: Fact Sheet

- In 2021, Reddam House became the first educational institution in South Africa to offer the International Foundation Year (IFY) through a partnership with the Northern Consortium of UK Universities (NCUK)
- NCUK have been running the IFY course since 1987 and the qualification has been available in Africa for the past 17 years through our sister school in Kenya and other schools in Nigeria and Algeria
- Reddam House is part of Inspired Education - a leading global premium schools group educating over 50 000 students across an international network of over 70 schools on five continents
- From January 2021, Reddam House offered the IFY bridging course online with two home campuses: Constantia (Cape Town) and Waterfall (Gauteng) – This course is available to all students even if you have not completed your matric at Reddam House or Reddford House
- The IFY is run as an ‘in classroom’ online course over a seven-month (January to July) period
- The IFY is a post-matric qualification designed to prepare students for first year entry to undergraduate degree courses and the outcome is comparable with A-level
- The IFY course is open to all matriculants who have a university exemption matric certificate - Bachelor’s degree pass
- All curricula, examinations, coursework, and moderation are provided externally by NCUK
- Over 40 000 international students have been through the IFY course, of these 1 300 have been from Africa
- NCUK offers guaranteed entry into 45 universities based in the UK, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, USA and others. Seven are ranked in the latest QS World Top 100 Universities (Manchester, Bristol, Auckland, Western Australia, Birmingham, Leeds, Sheffield)
